Announcing the 2010 HOMESCHOOL WORLD SERIES in Central Florida

Monday April 26 through Saturday May 1, 2010

- One full week of varsity homeschool baseball
- Teams from all over the country in one location
- 5 new collegiate fields each with covered dugouts, covered stands, scoreboards, lights, batting cages and pitching pens
- Family vacation destination: beaches and Disneyworld
- All teams participate in Homeschool Championship Tournament

Lake Myrtle Sports Complex, Auburndale, Florida

Although it will involve more travel for most teams, the HWSA Board unanimously agreed that this is a better long-term solution for HWSA. It simplifies and consolidates the competition into one week only; it brings all the teams together at one location; the weather is more stable in Central Florida in the spring; and a more equitable tournament format can be crafted recognizing the reality of weaker and stronger teams.

The dates are fixed, so teams can begin making plans and raising funds now!
